

Planning:

- Planners are working from home but continuing to process and review applications. All upcoming public meetings and open houses have been cancelled until further notice.

Building and By-law:

- Plans examiners are working mostly from home, but continuing to review permits.
- Inspection of occupied dwellings including building permit, building complaint, property standards, and other by-law inspections: suspended until April 6, pending further review. Other inspections continue, building permit applications are still being accepted via mail / courier."
- All other inspections continue except the ones listed above

March 25, 2020